Why register my bike?

When you register your bike with the South Salt Lake Police Department, all the important identifying information about your bike, along with your contact information, is stored in the department's database. If your bike is ever stolen, all of the information the department needs to list it as stolen, as well as to identify it - and contact you - if it is recovered, will be immediately available to officers.

It also allows officers to verify a bike is in the possession of the correct person if they ever contact someone on a bike that has been previously registered.

What do I do if my bike is stolen?

You can file a theft report with South Salt Lake Police by calling 801-840-4000. If you have already registered your bike with the department, tell the officer and provide them with the registration sticker number (if possible).
